Biographies

Don Candy (guitar)

Don graduated from the University of Western Australia and became a finalist in the Thailand International Guitar Competition in 2014. At this stage, he set his sights on further study abroad.

In 2015 he was selected as one of only 14 guitarists worldwide to undertake a course of study through the University of Alicante (Spain), in which he received intensive tuition from world-leading guitarists including David Russell, Manuel Barrueco, Pepe Romero, Paul Galbraith, Paul O'Dette (lute) and Roberto Aussel. Whilst receiving tuition, Don also performed throughout the region.

Don began studying for a Masters in Performance degree at the Royal Northern College of Music in 2016 under the tutelage of Craig Ogden. During this time he worked with several different composers premiering new solo works. He also performed in numerous concerts across the North-West of England. Performing at Haddon Hall, playing guitar for TV (Cold Feet), and playing guitar on stage in a musical (Man of La Mancha) were among the highlights.

In 2019, Don performed at Perth International Guitar Festival as a solo artist and alongside Craig Ogden as a duo.

In 2022 he was one of five finalists in the prestigious Adelaide International Guitar Competition, the largest classical guitar competition in the Southern Hemisphere. He also returned to Spain, by invitation, to perform at the Alicante Guitarra Clasica Decimo Aniversario. That year he also began working with the Perth Guitar Quartet, in commissioning, performing, and recording new works for classical guitar quartets, which were released in 2023.

Currently Don teaches classical guitar and continues to perform both as a solo artist and as a member of various duos and ensembles. He is a member of the AMEB Board of Examiners and an adjudicator at various guitar competitions and events.
